

GREEN ROOM

January Newsletter

January is here and we will be practicing getting ready to go outside by putting on our gear all by ourselves. We sing "First the snow pants, first the snow pants, first the snow pants then the boots, then the jacket, then the hat, then the mittens go on last" (to 'Clementine'). It has been helpful to use and look at our visual poster of the order of the clothes. Thanks for labeling everything!

January 28th is Pajama Day. This means the children may wear (or bring) pajamas, slippers, robes, etc... and also bring a stuffed animal, blankie or sleeping bag to school. Everyone must wear something on their feet.

EVENTS:

Jan. 7th The Story Man from England

Jan. 26th Pizza Day – the Green Room will be making pizzas

Jan. 28th Pajama Day

During the month of January we will be studying, reading about, making, writing about, acting out: snow, snowflakes, snowmen, and snow clothes.

We will be reading:

Geraldine and the Big Snow

All you need to Build a Snow Man

The Biggest, Best Snow Man

Snow Balls

The Jacket I Wear in the Snow

The Mitten

Hey, Pizza Man

We will also play with magnets, glurch, self-drying clay, play dough, bubbles and marble runs.

AM Green Room: John's mother (Lynn) will be helping us bake muffins. Bea's Mother (Becky) will be helping with pancakes on Pajama Day. Hannah's mother (Jenell) is coming to sing with us.

PM Green Room: Graeme's father (Jim) is bringing wood working to our classroom and Graeme's mother (Katie) will be helping with our pizzas.
