

Yellow Room News

January 2010

Highlights from December

December went by like a flash! We had many fun holiday activities going on in the Yellow Room. The children really enjoyed painting their picture frames for the holiday gifts. We also had a very successful sing-a-long!

Coming up in January

Focus

Our focus in January will be Winter. We'll also be doing some work with color recognition and color mixing. At the end of the month, we'll be celebrating Pajama Day and talking about pets.

Important dates

January 7th - The Storyteller From England will be here.

January 28th - Pajama Day! Kids can wear their pajamas and bring their favorite pet (stuffed only, please). We'll also be making pancakes!

Other reminders

Don't forget to label all winter outerwear. It also helps if you stuff your child's hat and mittens in their coat so they can easily grab it all at once. Practice makes perfect! Please encourage your child to try to dress themselves in their winter gear. We really encourage the children to do as much as they can each day we go out.

If your child has misplaced something, we keep lost and found next to the front and back doors. We also place unknown shoes, clothing items, etc., on the first table in the Yellow Room at the end of class each day.

Need Volunteers!

I'm looking for a volunteer to make pancakes on Thursday, January 28th for Pajama Day. Please let me know if you're interested.

If you have any questions, concerns or comments about what is going on in the Yellow Room, please don't hesitate to contact me. Thanks!
